(Washington, DC)— On Tuesday, September 16, 2008, Congressman Steve Rothman (D-NJ) congratulated President Bob Jones, PhD, the President of the New Jersey Children's Aid and Family Services, for the organization's selection as a 2008 Angel in Adoption. Children's Aid and Family Services, which has served the northern New Jersey community since 1899, is one of largest regional providers of human services and child welfare programs. Rothman nominated Dr. Jones and his organization for this award in July 2008.

The Angels in Adoption program was created by the Congressional Coalition on Adoption Institute, an organization dedicated to raising awareness about the tens of thousands of orphans and foster children in the United States and the millions of orphans around the world in need of permanent, safe, and loving homes through adoption.
