

Congressman Rothman Statement on President Obama's Address to the Joint Session of Congress

Rothman Statement After Attending President Obama's Speech

(Washington, DC)

— Tonight, Congressman Steve Rothman (D — Fair Lawn) attended President Barack Obama's speech to the joint session of Congress and issued the following statement:

“This evening President Obama outlined his comprehensive plan to address both the economic and fiscal crises that are gripping our country. The President's plans are clear and reasonable. He is determined to get our country moving again and in a much better direction. I share his confidence in the American people and our ability to overcome all the challenges that face us. America's best days are ahead.”
