Rothman Announces New "Listening Sessions" Tour Throughout Northern New Jersey
Will Host 21 Town Hall Meetings in August to Complete This Year's Tour of Each Municipality He Represents In Congress

Hackensack, NJ - As part of his continuing effort to address his constituents' concerns and hear their ideas, Congressman Steve Rothman (D-Fair Lawn) today announced that he will host 21 "Listening Sessions" in August to complete his tour this year of each municipality he represents in Congress. This round of town hall meetings will occur in public buildings throughout New Jersey's Ninth Congressional District. Rothman, who went to 16 municipalities during the first round of "Listening Sessions" in February, will be visiting the other 21 towns in his district during this round of meetings.

"I work hard to be as accessible and responsive as humanly possible to the people I represent," Rothman said. "These town hall meetings will help remind constituents that I welcome any comments or concerns that they might have, give every constituent a chance to express their views and ask questions, and let everyone know that I am here to help if they need me. The first round of these 'Listening Sessions' were incredibly useful and informative to me, and I hope that the people who attended felt the same way. I look forward to another successful series of 'Listening Sessions' with my constituents. I encourage each of my constituents to attend one or more of the 'Listening Sessions' in their town or surrounding towns."

Each "Listening Session" is open to all of Rothman's constituents, regardless of whether they live in the municipality in which the meeting is being held. Those area residents with additional questions about Rothman's "Listening Sessions" tour are encouraged to call his Hackensack office at 201-646-0808.
