

Environment

Congressman Rothman believes that protecting our environment must remain a priority for our country. Since coming to Congress, he has worked hard to ensure that the air that we breath is clean, the water we drink is pure, our waterways are swimmable and fishable, and our precious open space is preserved.

Click here to read related news