Rothman Completes First Round Of "Listening Sessions"

Tour Throughout Northern New Jersey

Hosted 16 Town Hall Meetings In Municipalities He Represents In Congress

Hackensack, NJ - Sweeping across his Northern New Jersey congressional district this week, Congressman Steve Rothman (D-NJ9) completed the first round of his "Listening Sessions" tour of municipalities he represents in Congress to address his constituents' concerns and hear their ideas and opinions. Rothman visited 16 towns from February 14-19 in public buildings throughout New Jersey's Ninth Congressional District. The Congressman will be visiting the other 21 municipalities he represents in a second round of "Listening Sessions" this summer.

"These 'Listening Sessions' were very informative and important because they gave me an opportunity to meet with my constituents in their own towns and hear their concerns and opinions about the issues facing our region, nation, and the world." Rothman said. "As a Congressman, I am always striving for ways to connect directly with my constituents, which is why I wanted to hold these 'Listening Sessions.' I look forward to the second round of these town hall meetings this summer."

Each "Listening Session" was open to all of Rothman's constituents, regardless of whether they live in the municipality in which the meeting was held. Rothman encourages all of his constituents to contact him with questions or opinions anytime by calling his Hackensack office at 201-646-0808 or his Washington, DC office at 202-225-5061. Constituents can e-mail Rothman and find additional contact information at his congressional website: rothman.house.gov.

During the first round of "Listening Sessions," Rothman held open meetings with his constituents in the following towns: visited Wallington, Little Ferry, Leonia, Carlstadt, Hackensack, Fair Lawn, Hasbrouck Heights, Ridgely, Cliffside Park, Englewood, Maywood, Lyndhurst, Jersey City, Wood-Ridge, Secaucus, and Kearny.
