

Rothman Co-Chairs Congressional Hearing On Role Of Religious Leaders In Middle East Peace Process

February 4, 2004

Rothman Co-Chairs Congressional Hearing On Role
Of Religious Leaders In Middle East Peace Process

Washington, DC - "Continuing his efforts to bring lasting peace to the Middle East, Congressman Steve Rothman (D-NJ9), along with Congressman Barney Frank (D-MA4) (pictured left), co-chaired a Congressional Human Rights Caucus hearing on February 4 entitled, "The Middle East Peace Process: The Role of Religious Leaders in Peace-Making." Rothman led the discussion on Capitol Hill, which featured panelists Rabbi Michael Melchior (second from right), who is a member of the Israeli Knesset and former Israeli Deputy Minister for Foreign Affairs, and Canon Andrew White (right), the Church of England's former Special Representative to the Middle East.

Rothman endorsed the religious leaders' efforts as a positive contribution to the larger and more complex efforts to create peace in the Middle East.

###

Go back