

Rothman Brings North Jersey Religious Leaders To 51st Annual National Prayer Breakfast

February 6, 2003

Rothman Brings North Jersey Religious Leaders
To 51st Annual National Prayer Breakfast

Washington, DC - Congressman Steve Rothman (D-NJ9) today brought two of Northern New Jersey's religious leaders to the 51st Annual National Prayer Breakfast in Washington, DC. Rabbi Steven Pruzansky of Congregation B'nai Yeshurun, Teaneck and Reverend Vernon Walton of the Mt. Calvary Baptist Church, Englewood joined Congressman Rothman at his invitation for the Breakfast, which featured speeches from President Bush, other high level government officials, as well as musical performances by the Grace Presbyterian Church Choir from Peoria, Illinois and gospel singer Michael W. Smith.

This is the seventh year that Congressman Rothman has brought two clergy members from Northern New Jersey to be his guests at the National Prayer Breakfast. The 51st National Prayer Breakfast took place in the International Ballroom of the Washington Hilton.

###

Go back