

Palisades Park

The borough of Palisades Park, located just minutes from the George Washington Bridge, is a community of over 17,000 residents. Palisades Park is surrounded by Fort Lee, Leonia, and Ridgefield, and its location is convenient for many commuters.

Residents of Palisades Park enjoy the serene Overpeck County Park, an 811-acre park that stretches from Leonia to Palisades Park, Ridgefield Park, and Teaneck. The annual community event known as the New Jersey Chu'sok Festival often takes place in Palisades Park. The Festival was first launched in September 2002 to celebrate the traditional Korean holiday of Chu'sok, which is the equivalent of the American holiday of Thanksgiving. Over 35% of the diverse population of Palisades Park is Korean American, the highest percentage of Korean Americans in any community in the United States.
