

Maywood

Maywood, one of 70 towns that comprise Bergen County, is home to approximately 9,500 residents. Families benefit from New Jersey's quality public school system, with a "National Blue Ribbon" elementary school among Maywood's top features.

The town also boasts a historic landmark: the Maywood Train Station. Listed on the National Register of Historic Places, this local landmark was restored in recent years by the all-volunteer, non-profit Maywood Station Historical Committee. The Committee now operates the historic site as the Maywood Station Museum.

You can read about this municipality, learn about its local government, attractions, and more at the Borough of Maywood Web site: <http://www.maywoodnj.org/> .
