

Rothman Lends A Helping Hand To Habitat Humanity's "America Builds on the National Mall" Project

On Wednesday, November 16, 2005, Congressman Steve Rothman lent a helping hand to the "America Builds on the National Mall" project.

On Wednesday, November 16, 2005, Congressman Steve Rothman lent a helping hand to the "America Builds on the National Mall" project. The plan for the Habitat for Humanity sponsored project is to build 51 homes, one representing each state and the District of Columbia, for families made homeless by the hurricanes that devastated the Gulf Coast. Rothman helped assemble wall frames for the home representing New Jersey.