

Welcoming Englewood's Moriah School to D.C.

(Washington, DC)-On Thursday, June 5, 2008, Congressman Steve Rothman (D-Fair Lawn) welcomed 88 students from the Moriah School of Englewood, NJ to the nation's capital. Gathering beneath the dome of the U.S. Capitol Building, the eighth graders questioned the Congressman about a host of issues, ranging from the upcoming Presidential election to global warming to a typical day in Congress.

For Immediate Release: June 9, 2008

Contact: Kimberly Allen, (202) 226-8364; (202) 420-1524 [cell]

Congressman Rothman Welcomes 8th Graders from Englewood's Moriah School to Washington, DC

(Washington, DC)-On Thursday, June 5, 2008, Congressman Steve Rothman (D-Fair Lawn) welcomed 88 students from the Moriah School of Englewood, NJ to the nation's capital. Gathering beneath the dome of the U.S. Capitol Building, the eighth graders questioned the Congressman about a host of issues, ranging from the upcoming Presidential election to global warming to a typical day in Congress. They were also especially interested in U.S. foreign policy, asking Rep. Rothman about foreign aid, U.S. policy in Iraq, and the case of convicted spy Jonathan Pollard.

At the end of the meeting, the students were also able to hear briefly from the legendary civil rights icon, Congressman John Lewis of Georgia, who walked over to say hello to Rep. Rothman.

###