

South Hackensack

The Township of South Hackensack is one of the 70 towns that comprise Bergen County and is home to approximately 2,300 residents. South Hackensack borders the towns of Hasbrouck Heights, Teterboro, Little Ferry, Wood Ridge, and Hackensack, while only occupying an area of less than one square mile and is the only one of New Jersey's 566 municipalities to be split into three non-contiguous sections.

As of the 2000 census, there were 811 households with 593 families residing in the township and over 36% of town residents were of Italian ancestry, the 11th-highest percentage of any municipality in the United States, and fourth-highest in New Jersey.

You can read about this municipality, learn about its local government, and more at the Township of South Hackensack Web site: <http://www.southhackensacknj.org/>

Do You Need Assistance?

If you are a resident of South Hackensack and would like to request assistance with a federal agency, please fill out and submit this privacy form.

Congressman Rothman Working for District 9

Click on the links below for news about how Congressman Rothman is working for the residents of South Hackensack.

{mos_ri:south_hackensack_town}

- Hackensack Chronicle (<http://www.hackensackchronicle.com/>)
- The Record (<http://www.northjersey.com/towns/southhackensack.html>)

If you would like to see a media outlet added to this list, please contact us .